Court Injunction Ends Strike Against Romulus

Officials Told To Negotiate

By HENRY CANTIN

ROMULUS—All non-supervisory township employees, except police and firemen, who went on strike last Tuesday were back at work while union representatives and township officials negotiate issues that initiated the strike.

A back-to-work order was issued Tuesday, Feb. 13, by Wayne County Circuit Judge George E. Bowles ended the strike and ordered representatives of union and township to resume negotiations.

The employees are members of the American Federal of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFL-CIO) Local 64-A.

The local signed a three-year pact with the township. It went into effect in April, 1968.

Union officials charged that township officials have not shown "good faith" by its lack of willingness to sit down with employees and negotiate job description provision of the contract. More than 60 employees are involved in the labor dispute.

Roderick E. Smith, township supervisor, who requested the institution of court proceedings for an injunction against the local stated that the township board feels that it was negotiating with union and was making progress. He was pleased with the court's injunction.

Negotiation sessions were held Saturday afternoon and evening. Leon Carroll, union representative, broke off negotiations at 10:30 p.m. Saturday saying that "we are not getting anywhere", Smith reported.

Smith added that he and the members of the township board are willing to continue negotiations and await future discussions.

Russell Makowski, local president and Carroll in an issued statement said.

"After meeting for approximately six and one-half hours Saturday without agreement being reached on one item, the union was forced to halt bargaining until some clarification of Judge Bowles decision can be reached. Mr. Carroll and union officials will contact the union attorney and Judge Bowles in an effort to ascertain what can be done to force the township to negotiate in good faith."

The union representatives stated earlier that the contract stipulated that classifications and wage rates and job descriptions would be negotiated at a later date from date of signing (April 19 1968) and made part of the agreement.

Damage Exceeds $1,000

Vandalism At Beverly Closes School For Day

ROMULUS—The Beverly Elementary School was closed last Thursday because of "considerable" amount of damage caused by vandals.

Wayne County Sheriff deputies from the sheriff's Road Patrol division, who were called to the school, located at 35408 Beverly Rd., are investigating.

The vandalism was discovered at 7:45 a.m. by the school's custodian and School Principal Eugene Barr, who ordered the school closed to permit workmen to clean up the shattered glass and other damage.

Approximately 420 students were kept out of school. Classes were resumed on Friday.

Vandalism was found throughout most of the one-story school facility. Damage was estimated in excess of $1,000. In addition, a $600 movie projector, was stolen.

The vandals broke a classroom window to gain entry.

Once inside they went down the halls, and threw portable chairs through classroom windows, smashed class partitions, and knocked out various lights with a blunt instrument.

The school office was also entered. Desk drawers were emptied of their contents and thrown about the floor. Desks were overturned and filing cabinets tipped over.

The school's public address system was also destroyed, Barr reported.

Attempts were made to enter the kitchen area of the school where the food for hot lunches is stored.

The small window in the kitchen door found smashed was too high for anyone to reach the door knob.

They broke into the principal's office and desk. Phones were torn from the connections.

Barr was of the opinion that those responsible were in the 12 to 16 age bracket. He could not give any immediate

Romulus' UR Office Robbed

ROMULUS—The Urban Renewal Office in Romulus Township was broken into last Tuesday night and approximately $1,000 worth of equipment stolen, George Wilhelmi, urban renewal director, reported.

The break-in is under investigation of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol Entry into the office was made by breaking the window of the front door after attempts to force open both the front and rear doors failed, Wilhelmi reported.

Stolen were two typewriters, including an electric typewriter, an electric calculating machine and a desk radio owned by Wilhelmi.

A duplicating machine had been disturbed but not taken. Wilhelmi reported also that the Wayne County Identification Bureau had obtained some physical information.

He pointed out that federal mores were used in the purchase of the stolen equipment and federal laws may be used against those responsible.

Romulus Resident Receives Kidney Foundation Award

By JULIE CANDLER

ROMULUS—An award for his outstanding contribution to the battle against kidney diseases has been presented to a Romulus kidney transplant patient who last fall sold more than $5,700 worth of Trick or Treat candy to help the Kidney Foundation of Michigan provide expensive drugs at cost or free of charge to victims of kidney diseases.

John Johnson, of 13159 Homefield St. received the award from Kidney Foundation Field Director David St. Clair at a meeting of Local 1299, United Steel Workers of America, in the union hall in River Rouge.

The local consists of workers for Great Lakes Steel Division of National Steel Corp.

Collection of such a large amount was made possible through the assistance of Johnson's fellow workers, members of his family, and drivers conducted by the Romulus Jaycees and Kiwanians.

The latter organizations, under the leadership of Jaycee President Gordon Silvey and Township Clerk Alfred J. Perry, a Kiwanian, organized a successful person-to-person campaign throughout the entire township.

Johnson, 43, has been a crane rigger at the Great Lakes plant for 23 years. He is now back on the job, putting in his 40 hours weekly, following his transplant operation March 6, 1967. Since that date he has had to take expensive drugs to prevent body rejection of the donor kidney.

The medication has been provided on a regular basis through the drug bank of the Kidney Foundation, a Torch Drive service.

"It's saved my life," he said thankfully.

He received the transplant at the University of Michigan Medical Center, where his brother Robert, a millwright at Great Lakes Steel, gave up one of his own kidneys to save John's life.

Prior to the operation, Johnson had been ill for three years, although he continued to work until he was admitted to the hospital in late 1966. By then his kidneys had failed to function completely and he was kept alive through the use of an artificial kidney machine.

John L. Johnson

He was unable to return to work for more than a year. Even now, still taking the life-giving drugs supplied by the Foundation, he returns to the hospital every two weeks for a check on his progress. His employer arranged his work schedule so he would not lose work-time.

Last fall, determined to show his appreciation Johnson launched a drive to raise funds through the Trick or Treat candy campaign. He enlisted the help of fellow members of Local 1299, headed by President Samuel Reimann.

Lenten Season

(Editor's Note: The following is the second of a series of Lenten Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. Raymond S. Skoney, pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church of Belleville).

By Rev. Raymond Skoney

LENT, PENANCE AND LOVE

Ash Wednesday Holy Mother Church opened the Penitential Season of Lent with the words "Thus says the Lord return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, weeping, and mourning rend your hearts, not your garments, and return to the Lord, your God."

Here the goal of Lent was expressed that there be a conversion, a change of heart, a change of attitude, a renewal through prayer, fasting and good works. If we will perform meaningful acts of penance and joyful acts of love we will convert. We will learn to love God and our neighbor.

This is the goal of Lent, primarily, to grow in love, Christian love for Christian life, Christian meaning and Christian beatitude. It is the love for life, meaning and beatitude that will give man the peace that he is seeking.

Man experiences many threats in life that create anxieties. The first threat is death absolutely and fate relatively. There are circumstances in life that cause pain suffering, accidents, sickness, sudden blows. All these are relative to the threat of complete diminution of our existence by death itself.

Man needs to develop a Christian love for divine life which cannot be destroyed by fate or death.

Gerak Is Named To VB Industrial Commission

BELLEVILLE--The appointment of Joseph A. Gerak, 40, a vice-president of Campbell Development Company of Detroit to Van Buren Township's Industrial Coordinating Commission was announced by Edward C. Stoelton, township supervisor.

In announcing the appointment of Gerak to the Industrial Coordinating Commission currently being revitalized, Stoelton said:

Joseph A. Gerak

"The township is honored in having a man of this stature working with us on this commission. The recent industrial development and future growth plans proposed and on the drafting boards of area developers call for an Industrial Coordinating Commission second to none. Mr. Gerak's offer to serve will be of invaluable service to us."

H. Fred Campbell, prominent Belleville resident and chairman of the board of the Campbell Group, five firms in the development and construction fields and Irving Wallace, chairman of Van Buren Township's Planning Commission highly recommended the Gerak appointment, Stoelton said.

Words From Another Age

On a small island in the Potomac river at the virtual heart of the nation's capital stands the Theodore Roosevelt Memorial. The National Park Service maintains the island in its natural wooded state.

The Memorial, dedicated two years ago, was recently the subject of a moving commentary by James J. Kilpatrick. Kilpatrick noted quotations of Teddy Roosevelt on the Memorial as words that belong to a different age--an age that many of our young today would call square and cornball.

TO YOUTH Roosevelt said, "I want to see you game, boys. I want to see you brave and manly, and I also want to see you gentle and tender. Be practical as well as generous in your ideals. Keep your eyes on the stars, but remember to keep your feet on the ground. Courage, hard work, self-mastery, and intelligent effort are all essential to successful life. Alike for the Nation and the individual, the one indispensable requisite is character."

Concludes columnist Kilpatrick, "Teddy Roosevelt has been dead for fifty years. God knows we need his like today."

A Brotherhood Year

The new decade begins with the tormenting awareness that social problems in our land remain unresolved.

Each of us, in the words of Charles Lamb, is unconsciously a "bundle of prejudice". But it is within our power to rid ourselves of such a load... an unnecessary burden which only hampers our personal progress as well as that of our fellow men.

If we can but set our sights on the goal of true brotherhood... the belief that one should act brotherly toward one another regardless of race, creed or nationality... the load will lighten.

The National Conference of Christians and Jews calls this the "brotherhood commitment". They ask us to establish our own Brotherhood Week this week and next week and the next, all through the year.

This need not necessarily be an act of love, but of respect. Brotherhood begins with respect. As a human being simply engaged in the act of living in these difficult and decisive times, each of us is entitled to respect.

Yes, give us this day our daily bread and give us this day our daily dignity.

Van Buren Township To Examine Future Storm Drainage Needs

BELLEVILLE--An examination of future storm drainage needs in Van Buren Township has been ordered by the Township board.

The board's action was prompted by receipt of two requests for future storm drainage.

Edward C. Stoelton, township supervisor, reported to township trustees that the expense that would be involved in the laying of a 6 to 10 foot pipe would be "terrific", but that if GM were involved the expense to township taxpayers would be minimal.

Both Morris Levine, township engineer and Stoelton reported that there would be no pollution of Belleville Lake as the storm drainage would not be tied in with any sewage system.

Plant Asks Service

BELLEVILLE--The Republic Die and Tool Company, 45094 Van Buren Rd. presented a request to the township board last week to extend township sewage service to the plant.

The board tabled the proposal until the board's next meeting pending talks by Supervisor Edward C. Stoelton and Township Treasurer Frederick P. Birk with a township landowner. The firm reported that their own treatment plant has been declared unfit by the Wayne County Board of Health and has requested the sewage service extension.

The company lies within the township and would prefer to extend service with the township instead of nearby Canton Township.

Dog Tag Sale Set

BELLEVILLE--The 1970 dog licenses will go on sale on Feb. 23, Frederick Birk, Van Buren Township treasurer, announced Monday.

Dog owners in applying for their new licenses must present a certificate of vaccination.

The 1970 dog licenses costs are: $1.50 for male dogs, $2.50 for females, and $1.50 for unsexed.

The 1969 dog licenses expire on May 31, 1970. Licenses purchased after June 15 will cost an additional dollar, Birk said.

Resident Receives Award

"The men in the plant knew what I had been through," said Johnson, round-faced, pleasant and well-liked. "They knew how long I had been off sick, and they knew how the Kidney Foundation had helped me."

Reimann and other union leaders posted themselves at plant gates as shifts were changing, and helped Johnson distribute candy packages to workers leaving and entering the plant. They also permitted Johnson to sell the candies at union meetings.

Biggest helper of all, says Johnson, was his wife, Gail, who kept the books on the sales and gave needed encouragement to her husband.

Other helpers were sons Ronnie, 20, Roger, 18, Dana, 12, and even Robert, 4. Dana hawked the candies door-to-door throughout the neighborhood, near super markets, and at the union hall.

In addition Johnson raised more than $400 in cash contributions to the cause from civic groups and organizations, and from public-spirited downriver citizens. On Trick or Treat night, the latter bought 25 cases of the candies for distribution at the Ecorse City Hall.

In presenting the award, Field Director St. Clair said that once Johnson got his campaign organized, "the candy went so fast I couldn't get it to him fast enough!"

Even so, Johnson is not satisfied with his accomplishment. Already he is laying plans to do better next fall, and along the way he hopes to inform more people about the ravages of kidney disease and the need for help for sufferers who otherwise would die.

The Foundation estimates that 300 victims of kidney disease lose their lives annually through lack of facilities for treatment.

Lenten Season

The second anxiety is based on truth related to meanings. We participate in a life of meanings, scientific, artistic, cultural as a scientist, artist, humanist or participating intelligently in the work of these men.

This leads to living a spiritual life.

At times we find this or that area of our lives empty, devoid of meaning, a job, a marriage, people. Once we experience complete meaninglessness then we have spiritual death. So man needs to develop Christian love for Christian meanings that penetrate the absurdities of life and reaches the reconciliation in Christ who was made man, suffered, died and rose for man.

Pearl Bailey on Mike Douglas' show said "The hand of Death touched me but I did not respond... She touched my Daddy and he went so he may see more; I stayed so that I may learn more."

The third threat is guilt relatively and condemnation absolutely. When man is not accomplishing what he ought to do in certain areas He experiences guilt. When his life as a whole is going in the wrong direction he is threatened by condemnation.

He overcomes this through Christian love for beatitude which recognizes the reality of guilt, confession, forgiveness and beatitude with God forever. Through Christian love of Christian beatitude he does not attempt to escape guilt but accepts and acknowledges it and gets rid of it through loving and meaningful acts of penance and joyful acts of love. This is Lent, Penance and Love.

Court Issues Writ

Since the inception of the contract employees have made numerous attempts to schedule meetings to negotiate these items, but the township board has failed to avail itself for meaningful negotiations.

"There are trustees on the township board that have been or are presently members of labor organizations and it is difficult to conceive that the transition from labor to management can be accomplished so readily without the conflict weighing heavily on their conscience," the local officials stated.

In commenting of the voting to strike the local representatives said:

"Due to the lack of cooperation from the township board, we felt we had no other alternative but to withdraw our services. We hope this did not cause serious inconveniences to the citizenry of the township. However, in the event there had been an emergency, crews would have been available to render their services. This was in compliance to an injunction solicited by the township and issued by Judge George E. Bowles of Wayne County Circuit Court."

reason why any student would partake of such vandalism.

He stated that members of the school's PTA and other parents are assisting in efforts to determine who is responsible.

Barr said that under present state laws, if those responsible are minors and upon apprehension their parents are liable for damages up to $500.

Bill Offers Financial Aid In Divorce Cases

Immediate temporary financial support would be available to divorced mothers and their children under a bill introduced Feb. 10, in the Michigan Senate by State Senator William Faust (D-Westland.)

The measure would raise marriage license fees from the present $5 to $15, with the additional money being used to establish a "fund for emergency support."

Upon the filing of a petition for divorce, the Judge could order the Friend of the Court, who would administer the fund, to provide temporary support payments.

"The basic improvement which is offered by this bill," Faust explained, "was suggested by Dearborn Associates Municipal Judge John L. Kadela, and I agree with him that it will fill a real need."

"Currently, a mother who is divorced and who needs child support funds must apply for Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) payments to tide her over until she is able to prevail upon the father for support."

"The problem with this procedure is that it is often several weeks before any money is actually forthcoming."

"Under this bill, she can, at the Judge's discretion, receive immediate support up to the amount which ADC payments would normally provide."

The bill provides for the Friend of the Court office to replace money paid from the fund by seeking reimbursement from the father.

"The best part about the bill," Faust added, "is that it will guarantee at least emergency support for children, who are the real victims and the real losers in any divorce."

Mothers Set Mark

She and her co-chairman, Mrs. Mary Bossary distributed nearly 100 campaign packets in preparation for the march.

Mrs. Chandler attributes the success of the campaign to the excellent efforts of the captains and workers who "walked that extra mile."

Volunteer marchers give credit to the people of the community who gave generously; some who had refused to give in previous years.

Mrs. Chandler stated that the amounts collected, listed by school districts, are:

Cory school area, Mrs. Carol Rodd and Mrs. Cleo Kosick, captains, $192.35

Hayti school area, Mrs. Shirley Cox, captain, $188.64.

Romulus Elementary school area, Mrs. Mary Bossary, captain, $147.75

Merriman school area, Mrs. Barbara Wilbourn, captain, $117.44.

Mt. Pleasant school area, Mrs. Rose Sherkany and Mrs. Glenna Waddell, captains, $51.52.

Gordonier school area, Mrs. Helen Wicker, captain, $19.95.

Mrs. Chandler reported that the children's envelope campaign, Jay Dick, chairman, had netted $287.98 bringing the total to $1,005.63.

A benefit dance, sponsored by the Jaycees, was termed a "huge success" with final figures not yet complete.

"This was the best year ever," said Mrs. Chandler, "we are so proud of our community and all those who gave."

Sumpter Police Chief Gives Safe Winter Driving Tips

SUMPTER—"Keep your vision clear and sharp" was the advice today for safer winter driving from Police Chief Terry Williams of the Sumpter Township Police Department.

Winter plays two deadly tricks on motorists, the safety official pointed out. The first is reduced traction. The second is impaired vision.

Sergeant Jerry Cox listed the following tips to help Sumpter motorists keep their "ice-sight" sharp. They're based on recommendations from test drivers who take the worst winter can throw at them during winter research of the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards:

DEFROSTERS—vital all winter long. If yours aren't producing a good stream of warm air, have them fixed.

WINDSHIELD WASHER SOLUTIONS—check the label of the brand you buy for recommended mixtures. Normally, one part of antifreeze to one part of water will keep them working to 30 below zero.

WIPERS—use live blades that won't streak, that haven't been baked hard by sun, wind or oily film. Blade arms should exert enough pressure to carry away the weight of wet snow and slush.

1969 PRO DEALER OF THE YEAR—Hamilton Hardware Company, located at 458 Main St., was presented with the 1969 PRO Dealer of the Year Award by The Bostwick Braun Company. The presentation was made at the PRO General Dealer Meeting held in Toledo, Ohio, Jan. 25. The award is made annually to the dealer who has made outstanding results through the application of the PRO Program principles in the operation of their store. Left to right are H. L. Thompson, Jr., president of Bostwick-Braun Company; S. Richard Hamilton, Ron Walker, Bostwick Braun Company sales representative, and R. Lynne Hamilton.

Fact Finder Handy Guide For Beef

How many servings will a four-pound beef rump roast provide? Is this cut a more economical buy than the blade pot-roast displayed nearby? How long can a sirloin steak be stored in the refrigerator?

Answers to these questions are important to the budget-minded homemaker. Yet she may not have them just when she needs them most—when she's selecting beef for her family. She can have the answers at her fingertips if she has a "Beef Fact Finder" in her pocketbook. A glance will provide the information she needs about buying, storing and preparing beef.

Wed At Methodist Church

Donna Greathouse Is The New Mrs. Gilkey

Double ring vows were exchanged Saturday, January 24, between Donna Marie Greathouse and Dennis R. Gilkey, both of Belleville. The First United Methodist Church was reserved for the four thirty ceremony read by the Rev. Charles Dibley.

Floral arrangements included white carnations and gladioli on the altar and pink and white flowers behind the communion rail.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane P. (Pat) Greathouse of 44450 Harmony Lane, Belleville, Donna was escorted to the altar by her father. Some 200 friends and relatives saw her presented to her waiting bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Boone, of 7701 Mida Drive, Belleville.

FOR HER wedding day the bride selected an ivory silk faille creation fashioned with a lace bodice which extended down to meet lace-cuffed bishop sleeves. Cut in the empire mode, the toe-touching skirt fell in soft folds to form a brief detachable train. The gown was reminiscent of those worn in the movie, "Camelot".

Her bouffant veil of silk illusion, held by a cap of sequin-embroidered ivory lace, drifted to mid-back length. Completing her bridal finery was a cascade of white dwarf mums and stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

Michelle Mondor of Detroit, a childhood friend and college roommate of the bride, was asked to be maid of honor. Mrs. Albert Griffith of Ypsilanti and Karen Lee Greathouse, the bride's younger sister, were bridesmaids.

Identically dressed, they appeared in formal frocks designed with burgundy velvet bodices and pink peau de soie skirts. Styling details included high-rise waistlines and bishop sleeves. Pink silk bows with matching veils comprised their headgear and pink carnations and red roses formed their old-fashioned bouquets.

Dinner and dancing at Local 900 Hall, Wayne, followed the ceremony with some 250 guests attending. Mrs. Greathouse received in a light blue knit sheath embroidered in silver with a jeweled neckline. Her corsage was of green cymbidium orchids. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Boone donned a two-piece gray wool knit ensemble to which she added pink cymbidium orchids.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. George F. Mc Candless, of Riverdale, Maryland; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Greathouse, and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Belovar, all from Illinois.

Following a three-day honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the newlyweds took up apartment living in Ypsilanti where both attend school. The new Mrs. Gilkey is a junior at Eastern Michigan University and her husband attends Washtenaw Community College.

Both graduated from Belleville High School, she in 1967 and he in 1965. Dennis is also a veteran of the Vietnam conflict, having served with the U. S. Army after graduation.

A New Dishwasher Needs Special Care

RECIPE FOR GOOD DISHWASHING

Just as you use a good recipe for successful meal preparation, it is important to use a good recipe for washing the dishes used to prepare the menu. It is a simple recipe and, if followed, will give excellent results in your automatic dishwasher.

The Recipe Is: HOT WATER, PROPER DETERGENT, PROPER LOADING

LET'S TALK A BIT ABOUT THE RECIPE

To insure better soil removal, more complete sanitation, and drying of dishes, the hot water entering the dishwasher should be 140 degrees to 160 degrees F. The water temperature is affected by both the water heater control setting and the distance the water must travel from heater to sink faucet. The further the water must travel, the greater the drop in temperature. Therefore, allow the water to run from the sink faucet until it is hot before starting the dishwasher.

The more you use your dishwasher, the more you will find it will do. The day you get a dishwasher is the day you begin a new way of life with a freedom you could never have imagined.

IS IT MACHINE WASHABLE?

Most items used in preparing and serving meals are machine washable. There are a few items which are not recommended for machine dishwashing. Here are a few!

Iron Skillet and Utensils: Don't put iron in the dishwasher. These items depend upon a film of grease to protect them and give them cooking performance. Special dishwasher detergents will remove the grease, causing iron to rust.

Plastic Dishes and Wooden Utensils: Plastic and wooden utensils vary in their ability to withstand the combination of high water temperature and detergents used in your automatic dishwasher. Therefore, only those types approved for high-temperature washing should be washed in your dishwasher. If you are in doubt about your plastic dishes, contact the manufacturer.

Hobby Kit Items: Ceramic ashtrays, etc., made from hobby kits should not be put into the dishwasher. The cements used in these items cannot stand the hot water and detergent action. Fragments from these items may cause damage to your dishwasher.

Girl Scouts Launch Fund Drive

William P. MacFall has been named general chairman of the recently-launched Huron Valley Girl Scout capital fund campaign for further development of the campsite in Livingston County. In making the announcement of MacFall's acceptance of the post, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Girl Scout Board President, said, "Since this is the first time the Huron Valley Council has sought public support, I think we are particularly fortunate to have a man of Mr. MacFall's ability and dedication to fill this vitally important position."

The campaign goal is $600,000. Proceeds will be used to erect 15 new structures on the 430-acre tract along with two additional outdoor living units. Basic utilities will also be expanded and improved.

MacFall, who is vice president of Wagner's in Ann Arbor, has had an interest in the Girl Scout movement for many years. Mary, his wife, was formerly a Girl Scout, and a leader. Their two daughters, Laurie and Martha, were also Girl Scouts. MacFall said he considers the Girl Scouts to be a great community asset and that their outstanding work should not be hampered by seriously limited facilities. "Today, our camp can accommodate only about half the number of girls it should and the situation is growing steadily more critical as membership and area population go up," he observed.

MacFall is presently enlisting other key members of the campaign task force who will assist him throughout the area served by the Huron Valley Council where he is well known as a result of business and community activities. He headed the Business Division of the 1968 United Fund Campaign, and has worked on past Y.M.-Y.W.C.A. drives. He's presently vice president of Rotary, a member of the Elks, American Legion, Chamber of Commerce Board, Ann Arbor's State Street Area Association Board, and a past president of the Y.M.-Y.W. Board. MacFall is also a member of the Ann Arbor Y's Men's Club and served as District Governor. While holding that position, MacFall was named one of the five outstanding District Governors at the International Convention.

ALL-AMERICAN GOODY -- With the anniversary of the birth of George Washington looming this week-end, local cooks and bakers might like to put together a pie reminiscent of that famous legend concerning the Father of our country. George never knew what he started when he chopped down that proverbial cherry tree but among them is the yummy practice of serving cherry pie in the month of February. So bring out the tender mood in even the way-out young mod and the thrill of patriotic pride in the most jaded soul with this luscious all-American cherry pie.

All-American Dessert For George's Birthday

BPW Hears Talk On MYI In Japan

The February meeting of the Belleville BPW was held at Edgemont School Monday evening. A smorgasbord dinner was served at 6:30.

The World Affairs Committee had charge of the meeting. Mrs. Janice Fensch graciously loaned her collection of dolls, dressed in authentic costumes of many of the different countries of the world, to the committee. The dolls graced the tables, carrying out the World Affairs theme.

Mrs. Klair Kissel gave an interesting commentary and showed slides of Japan. Mr. and Mrs. Kissel accompanied the Musical Youth International group on their concert tour of Japan last summer. Mr. Kissel was business manager and Mrs. Kissel acted as chaperone. It was the consensus of the Club members that the Kissels and other adults who accompany youth groups on these tours are being instrumental in carrying out the Club's theme of "No Time For Crime." Mrs. Kissel was dressed in the native costume of Japanese women. She exhibited several interesting articles which she had brought home from the tour.

Mrs. Ruth Shoup who was welcomed into club membership, is employed as traveling librarian in the Wayne School System.

Calorie-Shy Servings

Did you know that meat is great for the calorie-shy shopper? Many meat cuts are under 250 calories for a 3 1/2-ounce serving! A variety of cuts of beef, pork, lamb and veal provide satisfying portions at economical energy intakes. Note the sirloin steak which provides only 208 calories and the pork loin at 227. Leg of lamb is especially low at 195 calories per serving. All are high in protein.

More Meat Per Hour

In 1951 one hour's labor bought 1.7 pounds of beef. This year one hour's labor buys 3.2 pounds of beef. Income for American wage earners in that period rose from an average $57.80 per week or $1.45 an hour to $113.55 per week or $3.02 per hour.

Table Tricks With Napkins

When the climate outside is bright and warm try matching your family's springtime mood by making dinner a festive event. Cook an elegant new dish, try serving a buffet instead of a sitdown dinner, - and decorate the dinner table with paper napkins folded in fancy shapes.

Instead of laying a rectangular-folded napkin next to the silverware, tie dinner napkins into "Square Knots" to lay on top of plates.

To make, open a Kleenex dinner napkin. Then bring the two opposite corners together at the center. Fold this figure in half length wise and again in thirds. Then tie a knot.

Kleenex dinner napkins come in avocado green, Persian blue, antique gold, and snow white to let you change springtime color schemes at will.

Good Health Often Is A State Of Mind

"Take time to enjoy life. The person who is happy and having fun, feels better," contends Mrs. Gail Imig, Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service family life specialist.

Wanting to feel good automatically disposes most people to doing things that make them feel good, she believes. Remaining physically active in one of these things.

Staying relatively closed in at home causes you to lose physical endurance and cuts down on social contacts.

"Take good care of yourself," advises Mrs. Imig. "Prompt attention to teeth and health not only saves money in the long run, but enables you to enjoy life more and to feel more at ease in social situations."

Sometimes, especially when you grow older, it seems a bother to prepare good meals. But, you still need the same foods for good health that you've used all your life-perhaps fewer calories, but the same nutrients, Mrs. Imig declares.

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

In wintertime, people in houses with flame-type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed-up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts creaking.

Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat. You, see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat.

So you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

An Edison-Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to tell you all about comfortable, moisture-retaining electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and there'll be no obligation. And right now, your contractor's offering a $100 trade-in on your old heating system. Call him for an electric heat survey, or mail the coupon below.

He'll show you how to turn your desert into an oasis.

Ford Talks To Government Students

Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) maintained a busy pace last week during a brief Congressional recess in honor of Abraham Lincoln's birthday by speaking to well over 1,000 persons at schools and club meetings.

The Congressman flew to Michigan Wednesday (Feb. 11) in time for a series of meetings in his Wayne office with representatives of several postal organizations to discuss pending legislation involving reorganization of the Post Office Department.

In the evening, Ford spoke at a meeting of the Taylor Lions Club, and then addressed members of the Lincoln Park Jaycees.

On Thursday morning, Congressman Ford met with the Dearborn Heights city officials in the municipal building, and then visited Fairlane Junior High School, in Dearborn Heights, where he spoke before a student assembly.

At noon, he was the main speaker at a meeting of the Taylor Rotary Club, of which he is a member and past president. From Taylor, he went to Romulus High School, where he met with members of two senior government classes in the school cafeteria.

At 4:45 he arrived at the Air National Guard Administration Building in Romulus, to talk with members of the Association of Civilian Technicians regarding legislation of interest to the group.

Congressman Ford spoke at 6:30 before a meeting of the Dearborn Heights Kiwanis Club, at 8 p.m. to members of the Park Shrine Club, in Lincoln Park, and finished the busy day with an appearance at the Allen Park Democratic Club's monthly meeting.

Continuing his whirlwind schedule on Friday, Ford spoke at 9 a.m. to government students at Huron High School, in New Boston, and at 10:30 with two government classes at Belleville High School.

Ford flew back to Washington late Friday afternoon, and then continued on to Atlantic City to meet with participants in a conference of the Association for the Advancement of International Education. He was to remain in Atlantic City until Monday, when he was to speak before a seminar at the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators. He then will return to Washington, where the House of Representatives has planned a heavy schedule of legislation for the week.

INTERESTED STUDENTS--Congressman William D. Ford (D) 15th District paid a visit to the Belleville High School last Friday and talked to students studying government, International Relations and American History. Above are some of the students that attended the event and who participated in a question and answer period.

Mahalak Explains

Bill Seeks To Raise Funds For Township Fire Safety

ROMULUS--State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus has co-sponsored House Bill 4025 which would remove restrictions on the amount of money available for township fire protection.

The present law Mahalak explained, allows township boards to appropriate no more than 2.5 mills of the assessed valuation of the township. This money can be used to maintain and operate a fire department, or to pay for fire protection from another source by contract.

"This limit on how much a township can set aside for fire protection has caused serious problems in many areas," he said. "I have heard complaints from local officials and firemen that the 2.5 mill restriction hurts fire fighting effectiveness. Fire fighting costs have risen sharply in recent years, just as costs have risen in almost all areas. Good fire fighting equipment is costly."

Removal of the 2.5 mill limitation, Mahalak added, does not necessarily mean any increase in taxes for township residents nor does it mean that an overly large amount of the township budget will be funneled into fire services.

"This bill will simply allow township officials to provide adequate funds for fire protection," he explained. "They may not have to exceed 2.5 mills, but if the additional money is needed fire protection services will not be hamstrung just because the law restricts the amount that can be set aside for fire protection."

The law affects not only individual townships, but also one or more adjoining townships which ban together to provide fire protection jointly.

Reed Benson Schedules Talk At Wayne Memorial Feb. 24

Reed Benson, national director of public relations for the John Birch Society, and son of former Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, will speak in Wayne on Tuesday, (Feb. 24.)

His talk "Communist Target Youth-Cannon Fodder For Revolution" is to be held at Wayne Memorial High School Auditorium 1004 Fourth St. beginning at 8 p.m.

Thy program is sponsored by the Westland Support Your Police.

One of very few persons authorized to speak "officially" for the John Birch Society, Benson spends a major portion of his time on lecture tours from coast to coast. In his current talk he claims that Communists are using youth as the shock troops of revolution. He explains:

"In so many nations around the world, Communists have tried, tested and proven their ability to ferment revolution. Don't say it can't happen here, my friends, because it already is!"

The eldest son of the former Cabinet official, Benson brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the lecture platform. His career includes missionary work for the Mormon Church, service as an Air Force chaplain, administrative work in government, three years on the staff of the Republican National Committee and eight years with the John Birch Society through the years he has developed a reputation that makes him one of the nation's most sought-after speakers.

Tickets for Benson's speech are $1.50 in advance or $2 at the door. They must be obtained by calling Albert Hadus 422-8818, by writing 936 Vansull, Westland, or at the hall the night of the speech.

Benson's analysis of the revolutionary activity in our nation includes a belief "the communists who direct and channel the idealism of youth do not really intend to destroy government, but to build a government system that is totally dictatorial. They use young people to help them accomplish their goal." He aims his remarks at Americans who may be unaware of the serious inroads that have been made upon the thinking of the young. "Too many Americans, both young and old have been deceived into abandoning an inheritance they do not understand for a future they will not control."

The Westland Support Your Local Police Committee, part of a nationwide network, has been formed to encourage our local law enforcement personnel in their difficult assignment and to help to guarantee that local police

Pollution Attacks Should Begin In Back Yard

BY BEVERLY McANALLY

What can the average citizen do about environmental pollution?

According to Karl F. Lagler, University of Michigan professor of fisheries and zoology, attacks on pollution should begin in one's own back yard.

While discussing the problems of air pollution recently on his radio program "Conservation Report", Lagler cited the back-yard incinerator as a good place to begin.

In Wayne County, according to Air Pollution Control Division of the Wayne County Health Department, open air burning of any type is in violation of a county ordinance. But, according to a spokesman, "we don't have enough eyes to enforce it adequately." What is needed, he said, are local ordinances with local enforcement.

Acknowledging the limited enforcement personnel of the county office, many municipalities have enacted anti-burning ordinances of their own.

U of M Professor Says

Dearborn Heights has an ordinance that prohibits unattended trash burning, while permitting certain types of burning inside a container.

Robert McLachlan, city clerk, says a stronger ordinance is anticipated as a result of awareness and interest on the part of civic and health groups.

The city of Inkster has a strong ordinance; in 1967 they adopted the American Insurance Fire Prevention Code and amended it to provide that no person shall burn grass, garbage or rubbish. Citations and fines are levied against violators.

Patterned after the Wayne County Fresh Air Ordinance, the city of Westland has enacted an ordinance that prohibits all types of outdoor burning, even outdoor barbecuing, if the need for such stringent enforcement arises.

Tickets and fines may be issued to repeated violators. Fire Marshall Lt. Ted Scott expressed concern about the plight of businesses who have disposal problems in connection with packing materials. Investigation of compressing and packing units is now under way, he said.

In February, 1969, the city of Taylor adopted an ordinance prohibiting open burning. DPW chief, Milton Gorsline, reported that trash burning is not permitted without a special permit from the Fire Marshall.

Dallas Keller, public works superintendent for the city of Wayne, reports that a new ordinance will, (after April 1.) prohibit any type of outside burning.

Neither Romulus nor Belleville have municipal ordinances that prohibit burning except for those materials that produce black emissions or noxious odors. However, both communities are under the jurisdiction of the county ordinance and to comply with the law should have a "blanket permit" from the county if they allow burning to take place.

But, regardless of ordinances or laws, as the Tuberculosis and Health Society says, "It's a matter of life and breath," and as Prof. Lagler encourages, you can start your own environmental campaign at home.

"You will be in a better position to cast the first stone somewhere else, once you've brought your own setting into line."

Community College Executive Honored

LANSING — The House chamber resembled a mutual admiration society Tuesday (Feb. 18) as Murray Jackson, acting Wayne County Community College president, accepted a commendation from a joint session of the Legislature, then turned around and applauded the lawmakers for their "courage and vision" in making the young college a reality.

Jackson was among six leading educators honored in ceremonies dedicating Education Day in Michigan.

In a concurrent resolution sponsored by 16 lawmakers and passed by the House, the 43-year-old Jackson was cited for piloting "the college through its earliest developmental stages to establish funds, facilities, faculty, student body and curricula."

In accepting the honors, the WC3 chief executive told the lawmakers that they deserve a large share of the credit for the rapid success of the college.

Time and again, "back when the college was little more than a fragile vision," Jackson said the lawmakers came to the legal and financial aid of the community college.

He called the appropriation of almost $1 million by the Legislature, at a time when public sentiment was mounting against large new expenditures, "a bold act of faith."

"Were it not for this support, Wayne County Community College would not be in the business of educating 10,000 County residents and I would not be standing here receiving your felicitations," Jackson said.

He added that the "commitment to learning of the ladies and gentlemen of the Michigan Legislature is by no means limited to an annual ceremony celebrating Education Day in Michigan."

NEW POST OFFICE--Belleville's new postal facilities under way on Charles St. between Third and Fourth Sts. is scheduled to be ready for use in June 1970. Above is a progress view of the new post office that will be leased by the U.S. Post Office Department. It will replace rented store front type facilities now in use.

Captain Albertson Is Honored By SAC

BELLEVILLE--U.S. Air Force Captain Richard E. Albertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis H. Albertson of 44585 Harris Road, was honored recently as a member of one of the top combat crews in the strategic Air Command's (SAC) Second Air Force.

Captain Albertson and other selected combat crew members were chosen to attend a special conference at Barksdale AFB, La., in a program to promote a cross-feed of knowledge and skills.

Second Air Force, headquartered at Barksdale, is a sub-command of SAC with B-52 Stratofortress heavy bomber and KC-135 Stratotanker aerial refueling aircraft units throughout the middle third of the U.S.

The Barksdale meeting also gave the Second Air Force commander, Lieutenant General David C. Jones, an opportunity to talk informally with the crew members and listen to their suggestions.

Captain Albertson is a B-52 pilot in the 410th Bomb Wing at K. I. Sawyer AFB, Mich.

A 1958 graduate of Belleville High School, the captain received his B.S. degree in mathematics in 1965 from Eastern Michigan University. He was commissioned upon completion of Officers Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex. His wife is the former Helen L. Kredox.

On Advancements

Troop 739 Calls Board of Review

ROMULUS--Scoutmaster Charles R. Kline, of Troop No. 739, has called together the Board of Review Committee, headed by James Harmon, for the approval of advancement of five boys to the rank of Tenderfoot, plus the approval of two officers (Patrol leader and assistant Patrol leader) selected by the Hungry Wolves Patrol.

The advancement committee met Feb. 17. The Court of Honor will be held on March 2, at Harrison Grade School, located at Eureka Rd. and Harrison St. at 7:30 p.m.

All parents, friends, and relatives are invited to attend this special occasion affair to recognize the achievements which the boys have attained.

The following boys appear before the Board of Review: Paul Affholter, Douglas Cooper, David Harmon, Michael McCallum, and Gerald McDiarmid. The following boys have been selected for the two officerships named above:

Dana Johnson and Harvey Millar.

Scoutmaster Kline states that as of March 2, the troop shall begin a thorough campaign of bringing new boys into the troop. All boys desiring to become scouts, or visit this expanding troop please call 941-5677.

Kline further wishes to invite all parents of boys not in the troop to attend the Court of Honor with their sons to see what occurs, and to possibly enroll them with the troop. He also wishes to extend an invitation to all others desiring to see this troop's first Court of Honor.

Kline, Harmon, the troop committee, and the boys of the troop are now in the midst of encouraging all boys 11 or older to come to the troop meetings to enroll as future boy scouts.

Scouting is for boys; scouting is fun; the scouts of today shall be the leaders, the fathers, and the citizens of tomorrow, is their call.

SS Says To Check Payments

DEARBORN--Medicare beneficiaries should carefully check the "Explanation of Benefits" form sent to them after Medicare has made payment for hospital or physicians' services they have received.

If the payment record is incorrect, the beneficiary should report any discrepancy to his social security office or to the Medicare paying agent immediately, Louis Levine, social security district manager, said.

Levine emphasized that errors in billing can occur. A careful check of payment records can prevent fraud or error, he added.

"America's manpower begins with Boypower." Since its founding in 1910, more than 47 million boys and leaders have become affiliated with the Boy Scouts of America.

Supervisors' Actions Listed

The Wayne County Board of Supervisors' Ways and Means Committee took the following actions.

Approved a $400,000 appropriation to help finance the six-month crash program aimed at eliminating the backlog of criminal cases in Wayne County Circuit Court and Detroit Recorder's Court.

The approval stipulated that none of the money is to be used for hiring additional probation officers which the Board of Supervisors contends are a state responsibility. The resolution calls on the state to provide all the probation officers needed to meet state standards—a total of more than 70.

Ways and Means also approved plans for a County-wide alcoholism therapy program under which a coordinator would be hired by the county department of health and therapists would be assigned to three yet-undesignated hospitals. The $57,710 first-year cost would be financed by the State.

The supervisors Special Committee on County Reorganization (meeting Feb. 13.) asked the Citizens Research Council of Michigan to prepare a list of desirable improvements in the Michigan County Home Rule Act. The committee also directed that provision be made for submission of the amendments to the State Legislature.

"There is general agreement that the Home Rule Act, as it stands now is not a good bill," observed the committee chairman, James DeSana, of Wyandotte, D-District 23.

Robert E. Pickup, the Research Council's executive director, said amendments could be prepared within a week because "we've been working on this (County home rule) for years."

The supervisors Legislative Committee, (meeting Feb. 9) adopted a resolution urging the State Legislature to place Michigan on daylight saving time.

Edmund Bizek, of Romulus, D-Dist. 24, sponsor of the resolution, said the recreation industry, including the County's own golf course, lost thousands of dollars last summer because of the earlier nightfall.

K. S. May Joins Marines

ROMULUS — Kenneth S. May, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis May of 8515 Hudson St. was sworn into military service Feb. 13.

May, a senior at Romulus High School will join the U.S. Marine Corps when he graduates in June.

Mahalak Offers Bills To Modernize Trailer Park Laws; Guarantee Rights

State Representative Edward E. Mahalak (D) Romulus, passed away February 4 at home after a long illness. He had lived here for 14 years, coming from Plymouth, Michigan. He had been employed by G. M. Hydromatic as a design engineer.

He pointed out that residents of trailer coach parks today have only very limited rights. The Mahalak proposals would extend to them the same rights of tenants in any other tenant-landlord relationship.

"Some of the many complaints I have received include promises by the owners of trailer coach parks of gardens, clothes lines, a free swimming pool, access to a clubhouse and playgrounds," Mahalak reported. "There was, in many cases, a long lapse of time before these promises were carried out, and when they were there were restrictions with them. The most common complaint of trailer park residents is that of ever-changing rules and regulations."

The Mahalak legislation would make it possible for housing commissions to receive complaints filed by both tenants and park owners.

"It is not my intent in any way minimize the authority, controls, ordinances and prerogatives of local units of government," he added. "They would still regulate, under their ordinances, the trailer coach parks within their governmental boundaries."

Mahalak said that assurances of tenant rights for residents of trailer coach parks would correct injustices which now exist in such areas as maintenance, utilities, criminal offenses and trailer sales.

"I hear complaints in all of those areas," he stated. "In maintenance, only certain repairs are allowed to work in the parks while other licensed repairs are denied access. Items attached to the trailers must meet the requirements of the park owner, regardless of whether the trailer owner wants that type of item or some other that might cost him less."

"As for utilities provided by the park owner, there are complaints that the park owners are lax in carrying out their responsibilities while at the same time demanding that tenants complete their utility requirements as quickly as possible."

"Other trailer park residents told me that when they complained of such criminal offenses as breaking and entering, prowling and 'peeping toms', little or nothing was done about them. There have, in addition, been complaints that some park owners allow unauthorized persons to carry firearms to patrol the park area."

"In the area of trailer sales, there have been reports of monies given to the park owners to insure the sale and of new owners paying monies to the park owner to allow the trailer to remain."

"Where established rules and regulations are in force in trailer coach parks, there apparently is often practiced much favoritism and not equal enforcement of the rules for everyone."

Deadline For Vote

BELLEVILLE-- The deadline for registering to vote in the March 25 special election is Friday (Feb. 20), Thomas Hopka, secretary of the Van Buren Public School Board of Education, announced.

To be eligible to vote, a person must be a citizen of the United States, be over 21 years of age, be a resident of Michigan for six months and of the school district on or before the fifth Friday preceding the election.

Voters of the school district will be voting a millage renewal for operations of the school system.

PLAQUE PRESENTED--The Board of Directors of the Belvil Community Hospital presented two former board presidents with plaques last week in appreciation for services rendered during their term of office. Left to right are John Barber, auto dealer, (1963-67) William E. Hinchey, hospital administrator; and Allen B. Rice II, (1967-70). The two men are still members of the board of directors.

Park Authority Awards Contracts

Contracts for improvements at three parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority were awarded by its Board of Commissioners at its meeting held last Thursday.

This was announced by David O. Laidlaw director of the Authority which has eight parks serving the citizens of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

One contract was awarded for improvements at Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville, with $9,984 to Thompson-McCully Asphalt Paving Company, of Belleville, for surfacing of parking lots and roads within the service area.

Two contracts were awarded for work at Metropolitan Beach near Mount Clemens, with one for $52,310 awarded to Don Cartage Company, of Detroit, for construction of sheet piling along a bulkhead wall along the Black Creek and $5,682 to the Cooke Contracting Company, of Detroit, for surfacing of a bicycle path.

Two contracts were also awarded for improvements at Stony Creek Metropolitan Park near Utica, with $15,767 to the Cook Contracting Company, of Detroit, for surfacing of the two picnic area parking lots and entrance roads; and $27,128 to Larry's Landscaping and Nursery, of Romulus, for installation of a lawn sprinkling system at Eastwood Beach.

The Eastwood Beach site is expected to open early this summer.

The bills were drafted, Mahalak said, following complaints he heard at meetings at Rawsonville, Belleville, Flat Rock and in Monroe County. "These complaints," he said, "stressed that the trailer coach park act which went into effect in 1960 is a very broad, loosely drawn up piece of legislation. My bills will correct major injustices created by that act."

LIFE HEALTH Tired, Run-Down Condition

The pace of today's world, with its constant stresses and demands, is producing a generation of "tired people". Whether individuals are able to maintain the pace, depends on the condition of the nervous system.

Vital nerve energy, flowing from the brain through the spinal column, maintains the peak efficiency of the human machine.

That tired, run-down feeling can develop when anything happens to interfere with the flow of vital nerve energy to the organs, glands and muscles... anything which interferes with the alignment of the spine or creates pressure on the nerves can interrupt or retard the flow of vital nerve energy. The result - fatigue.

The chiropractor, using scientific instruments, locates the areas of nerve pressure. With gentle, skillful hands he makes skillful adjustments which realigns the spine, relieves tensions and pressures, and allows nature to restore the body to health.

With the nervous system properly tuned, the tired, run-down feeling disappears and pep, energy, and ambition return. Another Health and Life Article from the Office of:

Belleville Ends Trenton Mat Reign

Trenton's reign of the Suburban Six Conference wrestling domain came to an abrupt end Saturday night as the "youngest member of the wrestling league" Belleville provided the coup de grace.

Belleville, which has a three year wrestling history, emerged with six league champs and 112 points became the new conference ruler.

All 12 members of rookie coach Tom Fritz's team placed in the meet.

"I'm floating on a cloud," said coach Fritz after the Tigers' decisive victory. "It's just great. Really great. I still can't believe it."

Fritz will, however, have to come down to earth soon—his team heads for Ypsilanti Saturday to compete in the Class A District Tournament. Ypsi, the favorite, is ranked No. 1 in the state "A" ratings.

Coming away with league titles and gold medals for Belleville were Mike Bonnici (123), Gary Krajewski (145), Vic Ogletree (165), Rick Phelps (175), Mark Pellicchia (185) and heavyweight Keith Simons.

Silver medals went to Tigers' Jose Garcia (98) and John Smith (107), while third place bronze medals were earned by Bernie Polzin (115), Bill Sineveck (130) and Jerry Fay (137).

Elwood Bailey was fourth in the 155 pound category.

Belleville's 112 points were the most ever accumulated by a team in the 11 year history of the conference. The dethroned king, Trenton, has sat on the mat throne for nearly a decade. The Trojans picked up 95 points.

Other teams who competed, (in the order of finish) were: Redford Union (84), Allen Park (33) and Livonia Bentley (24).

And how long will Belleville's reign last?

You can bet that it'll be tough to unseat the Tigers from the throne next year. Of the 12 members of this year's team 11 are underclassmen and will be in the lineup next year.

Allen Park cagers put out the welcome mat for their former coach, Belleville's Allen Gates, but that's about the extent of the generosity the hosts displayed Friday night.

The Parkers turned back Gates' Tigers 75-70, sending Belleville down the Suburban Six Conference basketball standings a notch to last place.

Gates, who coached at Allen Park before taking on the head coaching chores at Belleville two seasons ago, saw the last of his former cagers hang on to win their third league decision.

"I coached these boys when they were on the reserve squad," said Gates afterwards. "And, believe it or not they felt quite bad about winning against my team."

"Can you imagine that?" he said.

It was close all the way. The Tigers outscored AP, 25-24 from the court, but the host sank 27 of 34 free throws, getting 15 of 17 from guard Keith Fetzey which was the difference.

The Tigers made 20 of their 27 foul shots.

Belleville took the initiative in the first quarter as Joe Claybron and Garrade Pettus found the range, leading their team to a 16-14 advantage. But Allen Park outscored their visitors 24-15 to carve out a 38-31 halftime margin.

The Tigers shot back with a 20-14 third quarter and looked as if they had regained their poise. But Fetzey's phenomenal performance at the free throw line and the hot hands of John Hartsig and Dale Cabuatan pulled the Jaguars out of trouble.

Belleville's Rick Mussehl, who has been getting the tough assignments stopping opposition sharpshooters, again came through for coach Gates.

Mussehl held Glenn Knight, a 6-3 forward who is among the league's leading scorers, to four points.

Claybron and Pettus led the shooting attack with 18 and 17 points, respectively, but they surrendered the game's scoring honors to Fetzey who wound up with 23.

Belleville winds up its home league season Friday night as host to third place Trenton. The Tigers hit the road for Plymouth a week from Friday to play defending champ, Plymouth, in the conference finale.

Upset-Minded Romulus Awaits River Rouge

Team	W	L
River Rouge	4	0
Ecorse	2	2
Willow Run	2	3
Romulus	1	4

Though they are out of the Twin Valley Conference basketball title picture, coach Al Duva and his Romulus cagers will not be "out of it" when the Eagles host River Rouge, top ranked Class B team in the state, Friday night, according to the Eagle strategist.

"Sure they're tough," said coach Duva alluding to Rouge. "But all of our games are tough. Willow Run, Inkster, Ecorse just take a glance — which of those teams aren't tough?"

"All I can say now is that we'll show up for Friday night's game and we'll be ready for them," he said.

Romulus also got a lift last week with the return to the lineup of Nate Davis, the team's second leading scorer and rebound man. Davis scored 17 points Friday night in an unsuccessful effort to stop Ecorse.

Ecorse moved into second place in the league after handing the Eagles their fourth loss of conference year, 86-84.

A nip-and-tuck affair, with Ecorse winning the first two quarters, 23-17 and 43-40, and Romulus, the third 63-59, the game was eventually settled at the foul line.

With the score tied at 84-all, Romulus' Charlie Johnnican had a chance to break the knot when he was awarded a pair of free throws. He missed his chance.

Seconds later, Ecorse's Ron Mathews sank two charities — which was the difference.

Johnnican again carried the Eagles for the most of the way — hitting on 11 field goals, the rugged senior forward collected 22 points to top his team's scorers.

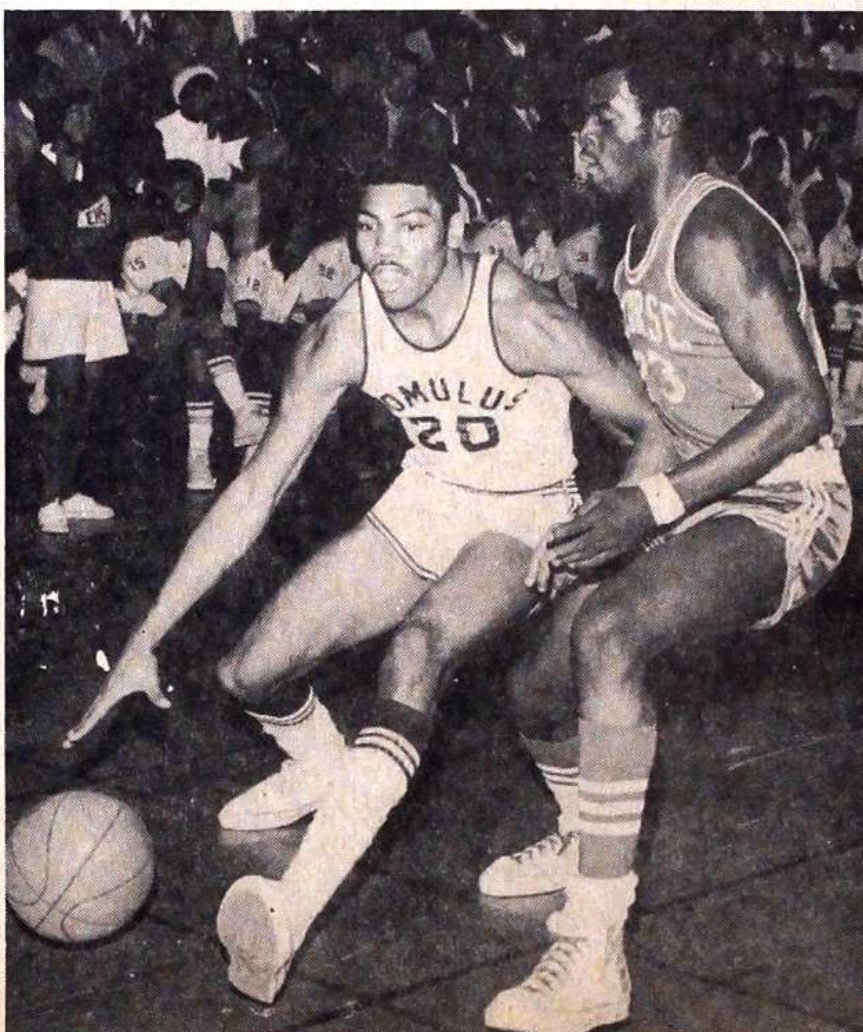

Aside from Davis and Johnnican coach Duva also received double figures from his pivotman, Roy Szyndlar, Frank Nesbitt, and Don Halimon.

Nesbitt drilled in seven baskets and five free throws for 19 points while Szyndlar added 14 Halimon chipped in 10.

The Thomas brothers — Mike and John — caused most of the Eagles' problems as they combined for 53 of the Raiders' points. Mike scored on 11 baskets and six free throws for 28 points while John supported him with 25.

Romulus had other chances at the free throw line, capitalizing on 12 of 23 opportunities while Ecorse made 20 of 34.

SECOND TIME AROUND Romulus' Charles Johnnican (20) uses a little elbow grease to nudge a crowding Mike Thomas who's as good a ball stealer as there is. Johnnican sank 22 points but it wasn't enough to stop Thomas and Ecorse Friday night as the Raiders avenged an earlier loss to the Eagles.

Romulus Hosts District Matmen

The state has shuffled one of the wrestling district tournaments this year and Romulus became host of one of the meets. And at Romulus on Saturday the district deck is stacked with some of the best prep teams and wrestlers in the area.

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

On The Mats

There are a lot of outstanding wrestlers in Associated Newspapers land, but there's one in particular who deserves a little mention here.

He's Garden City West's Rick Stewart, who has made our All-Area team for the past two years and appears to be on his way to making it again this season.

Rick, a 17-year-old senior who is tutored by West's Dean Shipman has won 66 matches over the past three years and last week claimed his 17th victory via a fall this year, which is nearing a national record.

And that's not bad, wouldn't you say?

He can drop his weight as fast as the Sports Meridian can accumulate it. Rick plummets from 133 pounds to wrestle in the 118-pound class with relative ease — and it's in that latter weight class that he'll probably seek the district, regional and the state championships.

A state champ? Boy we haven't had one of those around here for quite some time!

Stewart, named co captain of the Tiger team this season, has compiled a 29-1 record for his efforts. That lone loss, incidentally, was inflicted by Tom Toohey, of North Farmington, a state finalist in the 127-pound class last year.

Like most of us Rick covets "gold." Though illegal for all of us to collect Stewart's "gold" is forged on the mats where he has won nine first place medals, the most firsts by any of his present or former Tiger grapplers.

He also has a lot of "mosts" like the most consecutive wins (21); the most consecutive dual meet victories (15); the most takedowns in one season (36); the most near falls (25) and, of course, the most falls (17).

He's just an outstanding boy," said coach Shipman, "on or off the mat. I just wish I had him on the team for a couple of more years."

The wish, of course, isn't shared by West's rival coaches — who will be happy to see Rick graduate this year.

After graduation, what then?

Well, several colleges, including the University of Michigan, Iowa State, Ohio University, Eastern Michigan and Western Michigan among others have shown strong interest in the lad.

"I can't decide," says Rick. "My first task is the district tournament. What happens afterwards, I just can't say."

Sounds like a coach doesn't he coach?

Touchy Cage Question

Last week's column, "An Impossible Dream", brought a flood of inquiries to this desk asking if "the players, which made up the basketball team I picked, were in fact our All-Area team?"

The answer: "Definitely no."

To restate for the umpteenth time: Sports Editor Tom Mooradian doesn't pick the All-Area teams. They are, in fact, chosen by the area coaches, in cooperation with the sports department.

And, no one has to score 2,000 points to make the team. He just has to prove he's an outstanding athlete — both off and on the court.

Endreszl Hits 300 Bowl Game

That elusive "perfect game" — the bowler's dream — isn't a dream any more for Belleville's Thomas Endreszl who fired a 300 game Saturday night at Wayne Bowl.

Endreszl, 27, a 184 average kegger, hooked on to his perfect game after rolling games of 206 and 194 and finished with a 700 series in the Lou Roth Classic.

An employee of Wayne Bowl where he is an assistant manager, Endreszl has been bowling for the past 10 years. It was his first "perfect game."

Endreszl resides at 8701-40 Belleville Road in Belleville.

Teacher Praises To Editor's Concern

TO THE EDITOR:

The purpose of this letter is to commend most highly your Westland Eagle Editor, Mr. Bill Pomeroy, and to express my gratitude to him for his keen judgment and initiative while observing my third graders at Wildwood School.

His positive approach in reporting the classroom activities are appreciated by all of us. While it is so much easier to compose a complaint column or an expose, Bill Pomeroy visited our school on two different days in order to make certain he understood our N. N. Club purposes. I need only add: Thank you, Bill.

Perhaps it is proper for me to elaborate that my professional endeavors in the Wayne Community Schools, as a member of the elementary staff for over two decades, have been constant and open.

Unfortunately, however, Bill Pomeroy is only the second person who has been moved to say a nice and purposeful word about what I do with and believe about youngsters.

Several years back there was another perceptive reporter on your staff, the current Mayor of Westland, Gene McKinney sat and observed one of my sixth grade classes at Kettering School. He, too, wrote a very commendable account of what it is we call "progressive education".

I am sincerely grateful for such small acknowledgements of my efforts which have always been inspired by an abiding faith in the uniqueness--the "inviolable preciousness" of each child with whom I come in contact.

There is so much that I can say here to express my many concerns about the so-called quality education, for truly the word "quality" when applied to people becomes meaningless unless there first exist values based on love--perhaps Love with a capital letter, the meaningful kind that deals with people, children, precious beings, endowed by the Creator with "inalienable rights" to be themselves.

In my many years in the classroom I have been blessed by opportunities and challenged extremities. Each situation, each youngster has been regarded as a problem-solver, but never the problem.

Looking at my role in this manner, my classroom--from the oldest at the Roosevelt School (no longer here) to the newest and truly the finest at my present school--has been a place where learning and living are imbued with joy.

The individual youngster reigns supreme. Each finds natural opportunities to learn, however, that one's freedom in the group is limited. Interaction with others daily demonstrates that to be a responsible being is far more rewarding than to strive for your rights.

Only when we get away from materials, be concerned with people, can we proudly and humbly say: We have quality teaching-learning relationships in the American public classrooms.

Favors Hometown Man For Police Chief

TO THE EDITOR:

The city of Inkster has a unique distinction among other urban communities in that both blacks and whites work well together, in city council, city offices, and city committees and commissions. This certainly puts Inkster in a "head-start" position over many near communities that are not so fortunate.

As many cities in the news, Inkster has not been spared a history of unrest and dissatisfaction in the police force. Since July 7, 1969 citizens of Inkster have been reading issue after issue of the local paper hoping that something definite has been decided as to who will finally become head of the police force.

Our last official police chief was imported to Inkster and served until a better opportunity arose in some far distant city. Now, we read that our City Manager, Mr. DeSantis, is preparing to move on too. It is becoming apparent that Inkster's destiny rests not with those who visit our fair City? for a short time and then move on to greener pastures, but with those to whom Inkster is "home".

It is time that Lieutenant Anderson Young, who has shown dedication in his 16 years with the Inkster Force and has his home and interests in Inkster, be appointed Chief of Police. Lieutenant Young has served well as Acting Chief during the past seven months.

Inkster is fortunate to have this man who knows the community, who has lived all his life in Inkster, who is active in civic affairs and programs of his church, and most of all, who knows, the people and respects the needs of the community. This man will stay with the job and will be a credit to the position, because Inkster is his home.

Will the real City Council please stand up! (And be counted).

Works With Posters For Cancer Control

TO THE EDITOR

Michigan Cancer Foundation volunteers are "doing their thing"--that is, informing the public about the varied cancer-control services of the MCF--by way of a 1979 poster campaign presenting 12 significant cancer-control messages.

Dr. Frank Jakes, Executive Vice President, has designated one poster for each month, beginning with the January message which promotes public use of the MCF educational library. Emphasis, "Our films don't have big stars or rock music... won't make you laugh...but they might save your life!"

Attention-getting captions, excellent graphics, and explanatory "long" copy in the best advertising manner characterize the 12 posters, which will be distributed throughout Detroit and neighboring communities. Selected locations afford sufficient time for the reader to learn more about the specific service mentioned in the caption.

A total of 24,000 posters will be distributed annually by hardworking MCF unit volunteers aided by other clubs and organizations. They cross lines to help in the awareness that cancer-control is one of the most urgent public-health needs.

The MCF, which is the United Fund's only cancer-control agency, conducts vigilant programs of research, education, and service to cancer patients.

Prevention of cancer is the goal of withdrawal clinics (recently) expanded to high-school and daytime clinics, providing complete, intensive health examinations; a superb speech school for laryngectomees, and the more visible of a multitude of the MCF's steady attacks on the dread disease, cancer.

Reader Speaks Out Against Wayne Millage

TO THE EDITOR:

Once again it's time for the Board of Education to start to expound on the necessity of millage renewal, last year it was for 17 mills, this time 21. I can remember the propaganda about that so called necessity which was sent to parents by way of our school children, the mail and delivered door to door.

The school board and the superintendent did everything in its power to make the people of the district believe that without the renewal the education of our children would have to be slashed to the bare minimum, half-day sessions, curtailed athletics, the whole bit.

Strange as it may seem however, all of the millage wasn't needed and the board could then make a big thing of reducing taxes. This year must really be bad because they can't even wait until the regular election in June and are willing to spend money for a special election in March. The March is of course another maneuver which aids their

Your Help Needed To Aid Viet PW's

TO THE EDITOR

My husband, Major Donald E. Odell is a prisoner of war held captive by the North Vietnamese since October 17, 1967. He was listed as missing in action for two years and two months and I finally received a letter from him in December, 1969. For the first time in 26 months I know Don is alive.

I feel I received this letter because of the efforts of the American people. I asked them to participate in a letter writing campaign and from all indications many thousands of people spoke out on behalf of the prisoners of war.

Now that I have heard from my husband my feelings to help achieve humane treatment of our captive men and ultimately to achieve their freedom is even greater.

As a wife of a prisoner, I am begging you to read the sample letter and use it as a guide in preparing your appeal to Hanoi. I would appreciate it if you would forward your personal letter to me at the address listed below (I will then forward them in bulk to Hanoi to express Michiganders concern.)

Hanoi is interested in the American citizens reaction to the prisoner of war situation and they find it difficult to believe that YOU as an individual would be concerned over 1400 men held captive and missing in action.

Only YOU with your letter of concern can bring our men home. Won't you please take the time to care. Write your letter of concern today.

The only reward for your efforts that I can offer you is the eternal thank you of the men who are waiting for your help.

Regardless of your opinion on the war in Vietnam, I ask that you consider this plea as a separate issue.

I have four children. Carol, 10, is in the 5th grade. Barbara, 8, is in the 3rd grade. They write weekly to Hanoi. My two boys, Paul is 5 and in Kindergarten and Davis is 3 years old. He does not know his father because Don left for Vietnam when he was six months old.

Please join my family in our efforts to free our prisoners of war.

Sincerely yours,
MRS. SHIRLEY A. ODELL

Dear Hanoi,

Belleville Man Praises School Bus Drivers

TO THE EDITOR

I would like to ring the bell for what I consider the "Unsung Heroes" of yesterday, today, and tomorrow. These people are known as school bus drivers.

Considering the problems conducive to the job: discipline of the children, times of day drivers must drive, weather and road conditions, there must be a great amount of dedication among these people.

Occasionally, parents call and complain about any one of a thousand things, but when asked if they would consider employment as a bus driver, the answer is always, "I wouldn't drive a school bus for any amount of money". When supervisors such as myself hear answers like this, it tends to strengthen the relationship between employer and employee tremendously.

When a parent calls because a bus is late (probably the driver has to wait for a student and the bus was on time the day before) we wonder how much consideration was given before the call was made.

Possibly this was one of the mornings that it was 5 below zero, the bus wouldn't start (this does happen at 5 below) and the roads were slippery.

It would sound as though I were after the sympathy, but this is not the case. Unfortunately, all problems in the department reflect back on the drivers, and this is grossly unfair.

After being exposed to the flu, colds, running noses, chicken pox, measles, etc, it is obvious that occasionally they get sick also. This requires a substitute driver. We have route sheets for these substitutes listing the stops, but in the dark of the morning, it is impossible to read house numbers, so we rely on the students to help. If the students aren't at the bus stop they may be missed.

Thinking of it this way, we operate 63 busses, travel, 2,658 miles a day, transport 6,500 students twice a day, and still maintain the lowest accident rate. We realize that in the small amount of calls we get, there is not much forethought given to the call.

'Crucible' Holds Lesson For Troubled Times

WESTLAND-The first play by Arthur Miller to follow the extraordinary success of his "Death of a Salesman" is the next attraction of the Wayne Civic Players, to be presented Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7, at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday, March 8 at 7:30 p.m. at John Glenn High School in Westland.

"The Crucible" is a tragedy relating the momentous events that left a scar on American history - the witchcraft trials in Salem, Massachusetts, in 1692.

Dave Eastman will play the leading role of a colonial farmer whose stubborn demand for justice during the mass hysteria of the witch-hunts, aroused the hostility of the bigoted persecutors. The persecutors, to justify themselves, had to exclude any evidence that ran counter to their own accusations and to condemn to be hanged everyone who raised a voice in opposition.

Sondra Vedock will be seen as the farmer's wife, irresponsibly accused of witchcraft by a wanton girl, played by Deborah Callahan.

The play shows that most of the other charges of being leagued with the Devil arose out of similar hatreds, envies, hysterical hallucinations and efforts of frightened violators of the rigid Puritan codes to clear themselves by implicating others in black arts.

Because parallelisms between the benighted days of Salem and the relentless investigations of our own time into other forms of heresy were almost inescapable, "The Crucible" aroused a storm of controversy when it was first produced in New York in early 1953.

Despite, or perhaps because of the uproars and arguments that swirled around the presentation, this melodramatic revelation of the technique of witch-hunts achieved a run of nearly six months.

Some other important members of the cast in the presentation will be Riley Tadlock as the self-righteous, vengeful deputy-governor of the Massachusetts colony who presides over the witchcraft trials; Dennis Wilders as an obsequious minister willing to send to the gallows for witchery everyone who opposes him and Frances Iadonisi as an intimidated servant-girl who reneges on her testimony at the trial only to return to her wild charges under pressure of fear.

Also Floyd Guernsey as a clergyman who is horrified by the hatreds and injustices that blaze up at the trials, and Rob Roy, Tonya Nester, Rosina Raymond, Bill Terrell, and Nancy Blohn. Director is Jacques Guernsey.

Playwright Miller has declared that "The Crucible" is not only an accurate account of the Salem witch-hunt that sent 19 men and women to death, but that every one of the characters in his play took a similar role in Salem, in 1692. He drew his story from the letters, the trial records, and certain tracts written at the time, which are still in the archives of Salem.

Authentic Design Blends Homes In 'Mix-And-Match'

A community "mix" of apartments, single-family homes and townhouses is a wise opening bid in the housing game. But the dwellings must "meld" together to make a winning hand.

Compatibility of residential design is credited for much of the success of a new "total community" rising 55 miles outside New York City. Development of Panther Valley (a 2,000 acre community in Allamuchy, N.J.) was predicated on three essentials: a gracious country-manner atmosphere, conservation of the area's natural beauty, and creation of "mix-and-meld" housing units varied to suit individual tastes, yet coordinated with the site and with each other.

To achieve this homogeneous blend, architects were directed to design all living units with "the warmth, charm and homelike character of single family homes". They did it with authenticity of design, quality construction, and luxury features.

More than half the homes in Panther Valley are apartments — some contemporary, most traditional (in line with the community's Colonial theme), and all authentically styled. Single-family "warmth and charm" were created with the elegant and extensive use of wood. All windows, doors and woodwork (such as molding, trim, staircases and mantels) are ponderosa pine-stock units with a rich, custom look.

The Colonial apartments, feature handsome wood panel entries with delicately designed pediments and sidelights; multi-light double-hung wood windows, and elegant bows and bays. In contemporary units, wide-view casement windows, which emphasize the "modern" look, are stained to blend with textured wood siding. Wood sash sliding doors lead to spacious balconies. Most apartments offer as much living space and as many amenities as single-family homes outside the community — often for less money. The private home "feeling" was so carefully adhered to that it's difficult to tell — except for the number of mailboxes at each entrance — that the units are multi-family.

To emphasize the community's Colonial aura, street signs are hand-painted, rustic and weathered. Gas lamps light the streets. And, service buildings like the bank, gas station and motel are "disguised" as gracious old New England homes.

Combined with Panther Valley's traditional charm are a host of modern luxuries. These include: an 18-hole golf course, a ski association, a stately mansion transformed into a country club, air conditioning, underground wiring including a cable television system, and complete shopping and recreational facilities. Planned for completion by 1975 the community is expected to serve about 2,000 families.

UNDERSTANDING ISN'T SO HARD—Especially if you care, as Mike Callanan does. Mike, on the left, holds a model that may help the future of this young boy. As a Big Brother, Mike works to build up the confidence and self-respect of his little brother. Through Mike's help and friendship male identification can be restored. Volunteers like Mike believe that "No man stands straight as when he stoops to help a boy."

Big Brothers Do Something 'Wonderful'

BY BILL POMEROY

Six months ago, something wonderful happened: A young man took a nine-year-old boy to a Howard Johnson's to have a coke and talk man-talk.

You've got to be kidding, you say. What's so wonderful about that?

It does seem sort of matter of fact, possibly even a routine trip for a father and son.

A fatherless boy, needing a character-building relationship with an understanding man, has found someone to give him the masculine identity, friendship and companionship he ought to have.

This particular Big Brother is 25, single, good-looking, and hard working. He is not so unusual, until you talk to him and find out what he's like.

His name is Mike Callanan, and by profession he is an account executive selling airtime for a radio station in Ypsilanti.

Mike retains an optimistic and confident outlook and is a stable individual.

His little brother needs someone like Mike, someone to depend on who shows an interest in him.

Mike visits his little brother once a week, with a varying routine of meeting days. He looks forward to the meetings almost as much as his little brother.

And if, by circumstance, a meeting is broken, explain yourself honestly, says Mike. This is a cardinal rule, trust and truth weighing in the balance.

His little brother (whose name will not be used) was initially hard to handle, and was doing poorly in school, particularly in reading.

Soon after Mike was assigned to his little brother, through natural concern and encouragement by Mike, the little brother's attitude and schoolwork improved.

Neither could deny that their relationship helped the little brother's confidence and discipline.

"It's not a big sacrifice to me," says Mike. "It's part of a social consciousness. My way to helping out in a routine give-and-take situation."

It makes you feel important, a sort of ego satisfaction and feeling of accomplishment," he adds.

Basically it's his and your thing, but really "it's all his."

The little brother desperately needs male identification. It is for this purpose that a Big Brother is assigned.

The mother of the boy sees or senses the need and requests the help of the social agency. A Big Brother that "fits" the child is assigned.

The "wonderful" thing happens from there.

And what if nothing was done, or no Big Brother agency was there to help? The most frequent answer lies in docket of our courts and in the eerie sickness of our mental institutions.

Juvenile delinquency's most effective combatant is prevention, rather than cure. Delinquency and emotional illness among children occurs most frequently in homes where there is no paternal figure, show many studies on delinquent youth.

The same studies show that the incidence among boys is three times as great as it is among girls, the best method of prevention is to reach these fatherless boys before irreparable damage has been done.

It is to such a program that Mike and all other Big Brothers are dedicated.

Mike and his little brother "usually go out" on their get-togethers. "Recently we shot archery at a place where we could get a discount," said Mike.

"Our meetings are organized. We do something of his interest. He likes model cars and is very good with his hands."

If his little brother has something to say, they talk, but, says Mike, it isn't a friendship based on counseling.

Counseling itself would never open the doors behind which a lonely boy waits.

Big Brother agencies provide keys to those doors through volunteers like Mike and thousands of local men like him who care enough to do something "wonderful."

The Big Brothers are not supermen or goliaths, but men of average endowments who are stirred by the knowledge that their potentials are needed and can be realized in their friendship with a boy.

Their rewards come from inside, an inner satisfaction, that cannot pay the bills, but can make life more worthwhile for you and others around you.

Big Brothers need volunteers, and are opening two new offices to provide a geographic convenience to prospective volunteers. The main office is located at 51 W. Warren, under the direction of Rev. Herbert E. Saxman, (FA 1-1666).

The new offices are located at 3131 Biddle, Wyandotte, to be opened Feb. 24, and at 32 Lakeshore

Dr., Grosse Pointe, to be opened Mar. 3.

Children need an ideal. They mold their lives after someone they respect, and develop through influence and example. A little time can allow for a promising future.

Ceramics Classes Planned For Spring

Spring term ceramic classes begin March 2 in Michigan State University's adult education program at the historic Pewabic Pottery 10125 E. Jefferson in Detroit.

The Pottery was given to Michigan State by its owner Henry L. Caulkins in memory of its founders Mary Chase Stratton and Horace J. Caulkins so that it might continue to serve the community.

In addition to the ceramic program there is also housed in the building the Michigan State Council for the Arts... with future plans for a Pewabic Museum, pottery showrooms for professional and student work, a Pewabic Potter's Guild, and a pottery demonstration area. The English Tudor building was designed and built in 1907 by architect William B. Stratton.

Free X-Rays Offered At Wonderland

The X-ray bus will visit Wonderland Center at Plymouth and Middlebelt from noon to 7 p.m. from Tuesday, March 4. Persons 18 years and older may obtain the free X-ray exams, sponsored by the Tuberculosis and Health Society in conjunction with the Wayne County Health Department.

WOODSIDE SQUARE TOWNHOUSES

FOR AS LITTLE AS $87 PER MONTH*

The Woodside Square Townhouses are built for those who want better housing at less cost. Your monthly payment on your one, two or three bedroom townhouse includes everything: principal, interest, taxes and insurance, as well as heat, water and gas, but not electricity. And life at Woodside Square is completely maintenance free.

*Your monthly payment could be this low because under a special government program (FHA Section 236) your interest rate could be as low as 1%, depending on your family income.

Take I-94 to the Wayne Road exit and go north on Wayne Road to just past Ecorse Road. The sales office is open from Noon to 6 PM (closed on Wednesdays). Or call 721-7060.

Belleville Puts WW Swim Title On Line

9 Teams To Compete Saturday

Belleville, a dominant factor in the Western Wayne Swim & Dive invitational for the past six years, will face a serious challenge Saturday from a field of nine area high schools led by Dearborn Heights Annapolis.

Coach Bill Brandell's Tigers who are the defending champs, will have to be "near perfect" to stop Annapolis, according to the Belleville coach.

"They're good," said the Tiger swim strategist, "no denying it. They have some good swimmers and an excellent one in Pete Zuk.

"If we are to retain our title, we're going to have to be near perfect," he added.

The meet, in its seventh year, is co-sponsored by the Associated Newspapers, Inc., a division of the Panax Corporation.

Among those also to make a bid for Belleville's swim crown are Garden City West, East, Franklin, Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Cherry Hill, and Inkster.

The diving preliminaries are scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. at the Wayne pool. Swimming event prelims begin at 1 a.m. while the finals will be held at 7 p.m.

There is a 50 cent admission charge for the prelims and $1 for the finals.

Since seating capacity at Wayne Memorial's pool area is from 250 to 300, fans are cautioned to purchase tickets early.

"We have nine schools which have accepted the invitation to compete this year," said Wayne Memorial athletic director Bill Elliott. "And if you figure only 30 fans from each of these schools, we'll be filled to capacity. And we know there will be a lot more than that who will want to see this meet.

"Therefore, we can only serve the public on a first come, first serve basis," said Elliott.

As in the past, swimmers who finish in the first three places in each of the nine individual events will be awarded medals. Those in the fourth through sixth places will get ribbons.

In the two relays, the first three teams will also be given medals and the fourth fifth and sixth ribbons.

The team which captures the championship and the runner-up in the invitational will be awarded trophies. Also, the coach of the winning team will be presented a trophy.

Allen Park Breezes By Belleville

Allen Park, defending Suburban Six swimming champ, breezed to a 68-37 dual meet victory over rival Belleville, snaring nine of a possible 11 first places on Thursday. The champ, 7-1 in the league, shares the top of the standings with Trenton. It was, however, Belleville's fourth league setback in eight starts.

Jim Ackron and Jeff Fry prevented Allen Park from sweeping all 11 first places. Ackron won the 200 yard individual medley, touching in at 2:21.3. Fry won the 100 yard freestyle event with a 54.4 performance.

Belleville clashes with the league's co-leader, Trenton, here on Thursday.
